A beautifully presented four bedroom detached residence in private mature established gardens in a small cul-de-sac in the popular village of Gulval. The property offers surprisingly good size accommodation, which is not immediately apparent from an external viewing. The house was extended in 2005 to provide a particularly attractive kitchen/family room with adjoining formal dining room and bedroom above with very pleasant outlook over the gardens. The internal accommodation is well presented with good size lounge on the first floor, with a balcony designed to take full advantage of the pleasant outlook. Additional features include an integral garage and delightful terraced gardens with a profusion of plants and shrubs and private patio area. Gwedhennek is a small private cul-du-sac of individual homes, near the village centre, with school, church and public house. The town centre of Penzance, with its mainline railway station, is approximately just under a mile away. This property has to be seen internally to fully appreciate.
