Lovely sea views over Mount's Bay to St Clements Island and beyond from the top floor of this charming one bedroom terraced cottage, which is arranged over three floors, having much charm and character throughout. The property has been well cared for by the present vendors with many period features and used as a successful holiday let, the majority of fixtures and fittings can be made available by separate negotiation. Jousters Cottage is located in a convenient position within the village, only a short walk to the centre, with its array of shops and restaurants and the sandy beach. Due to the popularity of properties such as this, we recommend an early appointment.
