Mariner's Cottage is situated in Saltponds - the site of Mousehole's eighteenth century traditional salt works - an extremely sought after position in the village because of its quiet, traffic free location, stunning uninterrupted views across Mounts Bay and St Michael's Mount and closeness to the sea. From Saltponds it's a short walk to the harbour and its small sandy beach, Mousehole's award winning restaurants and delis, and even closer access to the rocky shoreline below the cottage. These properties rarely come onto the market and so an early appointment to view is advised. A particularly attractive feature of this property is its enclosed, stone-terraced garden alongside the seawall, bordered with colourful flowers and easily maintained shrubs and hedges.

The property has had no expense spared with high quality workmanship in recent years. This has fully updated its facilities including luxurious bathroom fittings, an extremely well equipped kitchen and cosy sitting area with raised log burner, creating a calm inviting home. Currently run as a successful holiday let enjoying small business relief the accommodation would also make an ideal permanent home. Equally, Mariner's Cottage would be available as a turnkey investment so furniture could be included if required. There is a Fire Crest sprinkler system fitted throughout the property.
