Situated in the popular village of Pendeen with all its amenities and on the northern coast of the Penwith Peninsula is this nicely presented detached three bedroom bungalow, set within a large plot with off street parking for several vehicles and a detached double garage offered for sale with no onward chain. The property as a whole offers fantastic space and potential to extend out or up into the attic which already has windows installed at either end. The property also has planning permission approved for demolition and construction of five properties in its place, meaning this property has a variety of uses. The property is approached over a driveway with parking for several vehicles leading to the detached double garage with eave storage space. There are gardens to three sides, all laid to lawn and enclosed by granite hedging. The accommodation comprises of three double bedrooms, lounge with wood burner, kitchen/dining room with recently installed kitchen units, family bathroom and rear porch. The house is double glazed throughout and is heated via a combination of electric wall heaters and night storage heaters. The loft has been partially converted with two windows to both elevations, enjoying distant sea views. The village of Pendeen has many local amenities to include primary school, village store, public house and the Southwest Coastal Path is within close proximity. This highly adaptable property is offered for sale with no onward chain and a viewing is highly recommended.
