21 Gisburn Street is a mid terraced property set on a quiet street close to the centre of Barnoldswick.

Barnoldswick is a bustling, traditional town set in stunning location within the Borough Of Pendle. There is a range of amenities including shops, pubs, cafes, church, primary school and college. Also there are excellent travel links to the nearby towns and cities.

Up until recently this property has been let out and achieved a monthly rent of £480 pcm. The property is in good order and benefits from having gas fired central heating and double glazing.

The property is spacious, with accommodation split over three floors. On the ground floor are two good size reception rooms and kitchen. Upstairs are two double bedrooms and the family bathroom. The second floor has the master bedroom, a large double.

Externally, to the rear is a small, enclosed yard area with direct access on the street. There is street parking to the front.

This property is being sold via the modern method of auction. Please talk to our team for further information.
