A most attractive and nicely appointed four bedroom detached family home pleasantly nestled within a small mew of just three other properties constructed by Messer's Laing Homes in 1999.

The property, rarely available in this location, is conveniently situated within walking distance of all local amenities, Quilters School, Billericay High Street and the mainline station being just over one mile.

Set within a beautiful, south facing corner plot, the well presented accommodation comprises an impressive reception hallway enhanced by herringbone patterned Amtico flooring continuing into the ground floor cloakroom, and formal dining room to the front of the house. A comfortable sitting room, with feature fireplace overlooks the secluded rear garden with French doors opening to a wide paved patio terrace. The adjoining kitchen/breakfast room is well fitted along three walls and incorporates a number of fitted appliances with space also for an American style fridge freezer.

To the first floor, the landing serves four good size bedrooms including a magnificent master with 11'9 vaulted ceiling and an en-suite shower-room. The main family bathroom has been refitted with bespoke grey tiling and quality white suite.

Externally, the house is nicely set within the mew and features a wide block paved driveway affording parking for two cars in addition to the integral garage (17'6 x 8'5) with internal courtesy door to the property and one to the courtyard style side garden which extends up to 14 feet in width along the west boundary with scope for potential future extension (STPP) of the property if required. The beautifully maintained rear garden measures 42' deep x 50' wide with well tended lawn bordered on all sides by tall, mature evergreen hedgerows and complimented by a lovely selection of established flowering shrubs.
