Sam says:

"This is just a beautiful unique home on the outside and the interior. If you are looking for a property that is not only completely refurbished but holds masses of love and charm, then this one may be just for you! Location wise, Church Broughton is a scenic village with an award winning pub but is also close to amenities in close by villages. The property itself, is the penthouse which has its very own private, terrace garden with beautiful views of Church Broughton and the church. Entering into the hallway, there is plenty of space for coats and shoes with further storage under the staircase. Heading up the stairs you can instantly feel the welcoming charm that this home has. The kitchen is a fantastic room, having integrated appliances including a full size fridge, full size freezer, dishwasher, washing machine, oven, microwave oven and coffee machine! The breakfast bar is huge and can seat at least 6 people but also has built in cupboards. The tap is an instant boiling water tap meaning you don't need a kettle cluttering up your work tops! The lounge has a real cosy feel and is flooded with natural light, having a window and patio doors out onto the terrace garden, the current owners have put in a beautiful modern inset electric fire. Both bedrooms are great sized double, the master having the real wow factor, with an incredible large free standing bath and patio doors onto the terrace garden. The shower room has also been fully modernised to the same high standard, large shower with rainfall shower head, wash basin with storage and WC. Outside, wrapping around the building there is communal gardens. This penthouse also benefits from having 2 allocated parking spaces. This property really is something special, has beams throughout giving it character and needs to be viewed to appreciate how beautiful it is!"
