The Light House, Ogston

Mikaela says:

"Where to start with this wonderful home! It's country living at its finest but with a contemporary twist. The area is idyllic as this home is tucked behind Ogston Reservoir, with incredible views. The lane heading up to the home has multiple passing points where you can stop and appreciate the gorgeous views on the approach. It's also worth noting that there is an alternative approach from Crow Lane, whilst not as picturesque, is suitable for larger vehicles such as RV's to access the property. The many benefits of this home begin right from the off, with a whole car park dedicated to this house alone with electrics included, which is handy for electric vehicles and RV's. There's a larger than standard double garage too with an electric door and even a further workshop space off the garage at basement level. The home itself has been renovated and refurbished over the years by the current owners whilst keeping a fabulous mid-century feel. With vintage doors and unique fixtures, there's so much personality. The main reception room is a suntrap, with dual aspect windows, a comfy window seat and a great feature fireplace. There's a further reception room too which could be a play room, snug or even a home office. The kitchen diner is truly the hub of the home. There's so much cupboard space that you'd be hard pressed to fill it all, 3 electric ovens and an LPG gas hob and integrated appliances. The kitchen island houses the sink and even more cupboard space and there's room for a large family dining table too. The two sets of double patio doors out onto the terrace make this room light, bright and very special. Just off the kitchen there's a butlers pantry which is really useful with a deep and low down sink, perfect for muddy paws! There's a guest WC downstairs too."

Now it's time to downsize for the next chapter in our lives. The Light House is such a special home, it will be hard to leave."
