Summary

Nestled in the charming village of Hackforth, this beautifully renovated three bedroom period mid-terrace house on Silver Street is a true gem waiting to be discovered.

As you step inside, you are greeted by a spacious and bright lounge which is a great spot to unwind after a long day, complete with a large under stairs cupboard for all your storage needs. There is a further reception room which is ideal as a home study/office space. The modern dining kitchen at the rear is a chef's dream, providing the ideal space to whip up delicious meals and boasts plenty of space for a dining table ideal for entertaining.

With three cosy bedrooms, this beautifully renovated period cottage offers a comfortable and stylish living space. The master bedroom even comes with a convenient storage cupboard, ensuring you have plenty of room for all your belongings.

This property boasts not just one, but two parking spaces, a rare find in such a picturesque village setting. The ground floor WC adds a touch of convenience, while the modern house bathroom exudes luxury.

Outside, the rear cottage-style garden is a tranquil oasis, perfect for enjoying a morning coffee or hosting summer barbecues. Additionally, there's a large outbuilding accessed directly from the garden that offers endless possibilities - whether you envision it as a home office, a gym, or simply extra storage space, the choice is yours.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to make this charming period cottage your new home sweet home in the heart of Hackforth.
