Summary

A rare opportunity to purchase this charming Grade II listed three double bedroom end townhouse, dating back to around 1780, situated in the very heart of Ripon. Perfectly placed for ease of access to the city's vibrant selection of bars, pubs, restaurants, shops and the iconic cathedral, this characterful home combines period charm with modern living.

The property boasts generously proportioned rooms and high ceilings, with accommodation briefly comprising: an inviting lounge with wood burning stove, a dining room with access to a unique 'secret cellar', and a modern fitted breakfast kitchen complete with built in appliances, a breakfast bar and patio doors leading into the enclosed rear garden.

To the first floor are two spacious double bedrooms, featuring double glazed sash windows, along with two stylish shower rooms. The second floor offers a further double bedroom with under eaves storage, providing a versatile space ideal as a guest room or home office.

The property's cellar, cleverly accessed via a concealed entrance, has been thoughtfully set up as a bar and seating area—a fantastic entertaining space.

Externally, there is a courtyard style garden, offering scope for off street parking and featuring a useful brick built storage shed.

This distinctive home offers a wonderful balance of historic character and modern comfort, making it a superb choice for those seeking a unique residence in an unrivalled central location.
