Sydney Mews is an excellent example of a picturesque cobbled London Mews. The apartment is exceptionally spacious with over 2000sqft of internal space and has a wonderful feel about it. With the added benefit of having it's own private front door, exceptionally high ceilings and large sash windows with views down Stewarts Grove its a delight to be in.

Although a maisonette the property has the feel and space of most houses in the area without the price tag associated and is arranged over three floors, converted from a late Victorian period house. The property offers three well appointed bedrooms with 3 bathrooms. The third bedroom is currently used as a study. The property is presented in good condition throughout with the added benefit of air conditioning and no chain.

Located only moments from South Kensington, Sloane Square or Knightsbridge the location doesn't get much better.
