

Welcome

TO LONGCROFT, CUBIS BRUTON

Contemporary country living

Introducing Longcroft at Cubis Bruton, a striking collection of twenty-eight bespoke 3 and 4 bedroom houses, intelligently and individually designed to be energy-efficient and highly-sustainable both internally and externally. Situated overlooking Bruton, the small Somerset town with hidden depths, this innovative and contemporary scheme brings a flexible and dynamic approach to modern rural living.

Our Vision

“ Longcroft realises a new kind of housing which, along with contemporary design, integrates the buildings into the immediate landscape and their surroundings. ”

We are delighted to bring the second phase of Cubis Bruton to fruition.

From the start of the project, there has been a close collaboration between Artist, Architect and landscape, to create contemporary homes in such a picturesque rural setting, while keeping a green and familiar landscape.

Externally, the new homes in this second phase will feature the same materials of Phase 1, with a subtle evolution. Bold, simple and textural, creating unique identities for each house and each part of the site and enliven the street scenes.

Internally, the goal has been to create layouts that facilitate a flexible and low maintenance way of living, with open plan living space and the large windows and doors that help the flowing transition from inside to the outside.

All of the above is glued together by the sustainability principles and features incorporated in each home, which complement the architectural design strategy.

The PV panels on each home will generate electricity from the sun, the fabric first approach with triple glazed windows will reduce the heating season to just a few months of the year and the mechanical ventilation heat recovery system will ensure fresh air without losing heat. These features are the perfect combination of high comfort levels and potentially lower energy bills.

Life in Bruton

Bruton Library

Hauser & Wirth

At The Chapel

Bruton is a small Somerset town situated in the south west of England, known for its beautiful and verdant countryside and charming lifestyle.

Settled on the River Brue, the town with its charming narrow alleys and picturesque riverside walks, features iconic historic places such as the Dovecote in Jubilee Park, a former 18th century Watchtower, and King Alfred's Tower. It also boasts a vibrant centre, with an eclectic mix of shops selling antiques, vintage clothes and organic foods.

Pretty much everything you need can be sourced locally from this idyllic but vibrant little town.

There are several restaurants and eateries, all known for their delicious food and locally sourced products. The Michelin-starred restaurant Osip is located on the High Street, and is famous for being a farm-to-table restaurant, where the menu is forever in a state of change. You can also enjoy a meal at The Chapel, a converted listed chapel which also hosts regular events.

What really puts Bruton on the map is the famous Hauser & Wirth, a world class contemporary art gallery, located in a stunning rural setting on the site of a former farm, it has now been transformed into a destination for experiencing art, architecture and the remarkable Somerset landscape. Visitors can enjoy the on-site restaurant, Roth Bar & Grill - a site-specific bar created by Bjorn and Oddur Roth.

Set within 300 acres of rolling hills, and less than a 10-minute drive away, explore The Newt in Somerset, a luxury estate featuring a beautifully restored Georgian mansion and extensive gardens. A true retreat from the hustle and bustle of daily life, it offers its guests a chance to unwind and connect with nature.

The town also benefits from great transport links, offering a vast selection of nearby great places to visit. Located just off the A303, it is well connected to the South West, being less than 30 miles from both Bristol and Bath while the railway station offers direct trains to Bristol, Bath and London.

Bruton offers a unique blend of rural charm and high quality of life, the perfect location to escape to the countryside and make your home.

No better place for a family life

Bruton benefits from two recreation grounds, a local football team and you will be spoilt for choice when choosing schools:

The town is simply a wonderful place for families and children, with beautiful countryside walks and outdoor activities including the nearby Mill-on-the Brue, a family run, not for profit educational and environmental centre.

Our Philosophy

Acorn Property Group's passion is to create positive change to meet the needs of our communities through innovative regeneration and exciting new architecture. Designing buildings and spaces where people want to live, work and spend time.

Whether an urban apartment, rural retreat, coastal or riverside residence, new build or conversion within an existing building, our homes are intended to be a sanctuary, designed for life and without compromise. Each Acorn development is unique and created to reflect local needs. They are inspired by, and sensitive to, their surroundings.

With offices in London, Bristol, Cardiff, Exeter and Cornwall our local expertise brings a unique approach to place-making coupled with a design-led philosophy.
