Location

Eastcote is a small village with a public house (which is also a brewery) and is situated approximately 4 miles north of Towcester annexed to the parish of Pattishall situated in the pretty South Northamptonshire countryside. The parish village of Pattishall boasts a church, parish hall, primary school with pre-school and nursery, a large playing field with football, cricket and tennis facilities with play equipment, two further play areas, a restaurant, and a variety of groups and societies. A fish & chip van, mobile library and mobile butcher visit the village on a weekly basis. Eastcote has an active scout group and a clay pigeon shooting club.

There is good access to the main arterial roads including M1 motorway at junction 15a, the M40 and A43 with train stations at Milton Keynes and Northampton offering services to London Euston with journey times of around 35 minutes and 1 hour respectively.

Local amenities can be found at either Greens Norton, Silverstone or Towcester, all having doctors surgeries with a number of dentists in Towcester.
