Beresford House is situated in the town centre, on the east side of Thoroughfare and within a short walk of Elmhurst Park, the river and marina.

Adjoining occupiers include a variety of national, regional and local retailers and residential properties.

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a Grade II* Listed building, the principal accommodation arranged upon two floors together with attic room and basement.

The ground floor comprises a self contained tea room, trading as Maeve's Tea Room. The premises are arranged on either side of a central entrance, the accommodation extending to the rear and overlooking an enclosed courtyard garden which provides further seating. The premises include a fully fitted commercial kitchen and basement storage.
