RAIL

Trains from Lincoln Mainline Railway Station serve destinations that include Newark-on-Trent, Sheffield, Leeds, Barnsley, Wakefield, Nottingham, Grimsby and Peterborough.

LNER runs a direct train service to London King's Cross (under 2 hours), calling at Newark North Gate, Peterborough and Stevenage.

AIR

East Midlands Airport is the main international airport serving Lincoln and the rest of the County and is approximately 55 miles southwest of Lincoln

Doncaster Sheffield Airport is the second biggest international airport to serve Lincoln. It lies just 38 miles by road to the northwest.

SITUATION

The properties are situated on the eastern side of The Avenue at its junction with West Parade approximately 400 metres to the west of the High Street within the City Centre.

The vibrant Brayford Pool waterfront, University of Lincoln and Lincoln train station are all within short walking distance.

The historic Uphill area of Lincoln, which includes the Cathedral and Castle as well as a variety of shops, cafés and other attractions, is located approximately 300 metres to the northeast of the properties. The area enjoys close to 2 million tourist visitors annually.

ECONOMY

Lincolnshire's economy is based mainly on public administration, commerce, arable farming and tourism. The main employment sectors in Lincoln are public administration, education and health, which account for 34 per cent of the workforce. Distribution, restaurants and hotels account for 25 per cent of the workforce. Key employers include Royal Air Force, NHS, Lincolnshire County Council, University of Lincoln and Siemens.

Lincoln has developed a growing IT economy, with many e-commerce mail order companies setting up in or around the City. A plethora of other, more conventional small industrial businesses are located in and around Lincoln. One of the drivers for the building of the University of Lincoln was to increase inward investment into the City and act as a springboard for small companies.

Lincoln is the main centre for jobs and facilities in Central Lincolnshire and performs a wider regional role that extends to cover much of Lincolnshire and parts of Nottinghamshire. According to the Central Lincolnshire Local Plan Core Strategy, Lincoln has a "travel-to-work" area population of approximately 300,000.

TOURISM

The City is also a well-established tourist centre and those who come do so to visit the numerous historic buildings including the Cathedral, the Castle and the Medieval Bishop's Palace.

The City is home to one of the original copies of the Magna Carta along with the Charter of the Forest and the recently refurbished Lincoln Castle houses these historical documents. Lincoln is also home to the recently constructed purpose-built International Bomber Command Centre.

Nearby RAF Waddington is home to the world-famous Royal Air Force Aerobatic Team (The Red Arrows) who can regularly be seen practicing in the skies around Lincoln.

The City regularly attracts in excess of 4 million visitors annually with a current value of tourism of circa £225 million per annum.
