

Description

Situated in the popular Ashley Terrace area of Alloa, is this spacious two bedroom ground floor flat available to the rental market.

Ideally placed for local amenities, a short walk into the town centre, with easy access to public transport and motorway links, this property will attract couples, small families or a single person looking for additional office/workspace. Early viewing is strongly recommended to appreciate this property.

As you enter the hallway you are drawn into the generously proportioned living room. This bright room is flooded with natural light from the picture window. The floorspace offers options for both comfortable living and dining furniture if desired. Conveniently positioned off the hallway is the kitchen appointed with a range of cabinets, framed by a contrasting work top, and is equipped with a gas cooker and has sufficient space for freestanding appliances.

There are two bright and spacious double bedrooms, with ample space for a double bed and freestanding furniture. Completing this property is the bathroom, comprising bath with overhead shower, toilet and wash hand basin. Double-glazed windows and gas central heating guarantee year-round home comfort and efficiency.

Externally the property benefits from a shared garden space to the rear and enclosed front garden.
