Location

Boroughbridge is a thriving and bustling former market town situated just east of the A1 motorway and being well placed for daily travel to Leeds, York and Harrogate. The A1 also links to the other main roads of the region including the M1 and M62. The town centre is within a convenient walk from the property and offers a high street of independent traders, main post office and a choice of bars and restaurants. There is a large Morrisons supermarket located on the southern outskirts of the town and a bus service is available which connects to York, Harrogate and Ripon.

Directions

From the high street, turn onto New Row and Florence Court is the third turning right and number 13 is on the left of the courtyard.

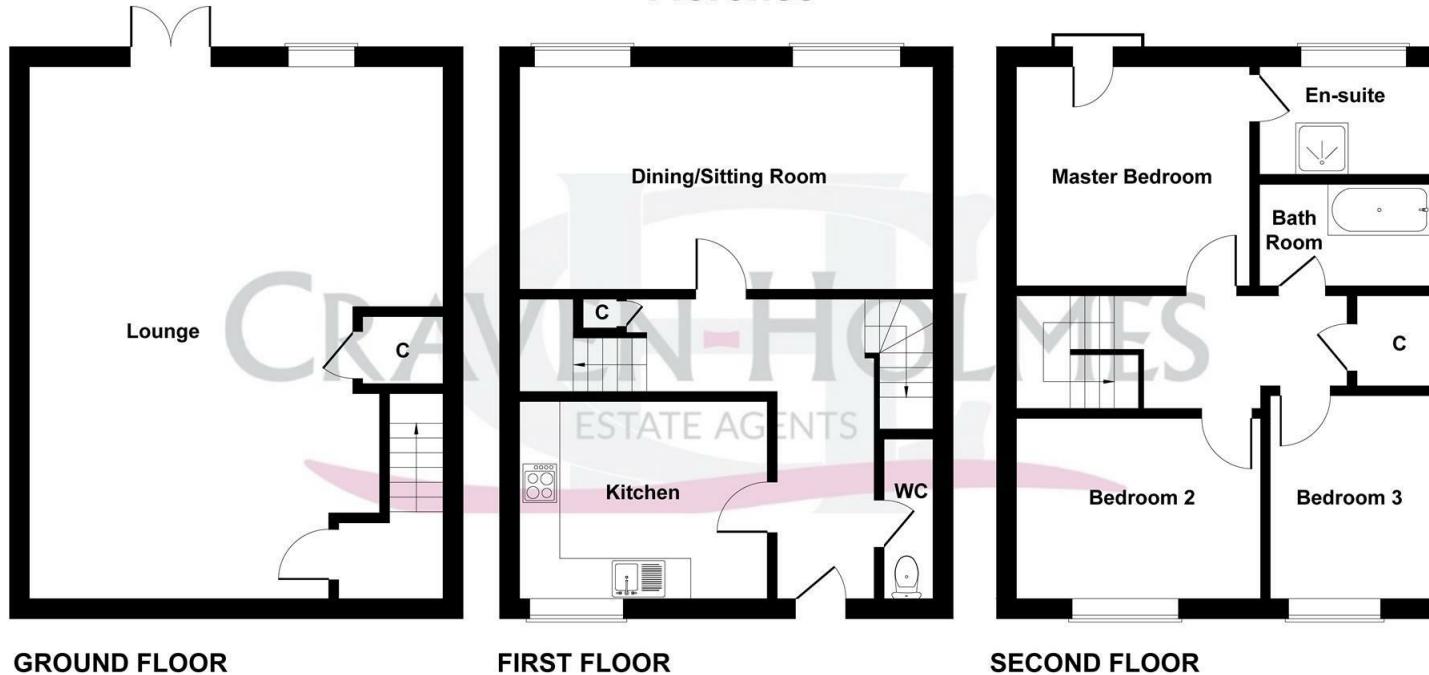

A large, grey upholstered sofa is the central piece of furniture. It is adorned with several dark teal velvet pillows and a long, light-colored fringe throw blanket. To the right of the sofa stands a tall, light-colored wooden bookshelf filled with books and decorative items, including a prominent 'CENTURY' magazine.

Two dark wood armchairs with dark blue velvet upholstery are positioned on a light-colored rug. They are facing each other, with one chair partially visible on the right edge of the frame. In the background, a glass door leads to a garden area featuring a wooden fence, a small potted tree, and lush greenery.
