Location

Marton le Moor is a small village situated midway between Ripon and Boroughbridge both of which provide day to day shopping and recreational amenities and the village affords easy access to the upgraded A1 motorway network for those purchasers wishing to commute to the business centre of Leeds, Bradford and Teesside. Ripon is one of England's smallest cities and is recognised for its majestic Cathedral, central Market Square with Obelisk and has a mix of period and modern architecture. Shopping centres mainly around the Market Square, Fishergate, Westgate, North Street and Kirkgate. The main market is held on Thursdays, with the town Bellman ringing his bell at 11 a.m. announcing the official start to trading. Every night at 9 p.m. the Hornblower blows his horn which is an excellent tourist attraction. A variety of other services and recreational amenities can be found including, banks, building societies, Doctors, Dentists, Ripon Spa Baths, Leisure Centre,

Racecourse etc along with excellent schools, notably Ripon Grammar. With the advent of the bypass Ripon is ideally placed for commuting to the major business centres of West Yorkshire and Teesside and the acclaimed A1/M1 link road makes travelling further afield more accessible.
