Lucerne, 74 Biddulph Road, Congleton, CW12 3LG

Asking Price £725,000

Take a few moments to admire this gorgeous home by watching our guided video tour!

A truly magnificent, charming and special home, 'Lucerne' is located on the prestigious Biddulph Road in the highly regarded village of Mossley and offers the most beautiful insight into a bygone era blended perfectly with all the accouterments required for today's busy lifestyles! Having been a very happy family home for decades, lucky new owners may now purchase this stunning Victorian residence and enjoy its very well proportioned and vast accommodation across both floors. Approaching 3000 square feet of internal space, you will love the four double bedrooms, and two bathrooms to the first floor, all enjoying multi aspect views of the handsome local area. The ground floor doesn't disappoint either as you move through the ornate reception hall you'll find two grand reception rooms boasting warming fireplaces, high ceilings, sash windows whilst to the rear sits a most impressive orangery overlooking the manicured grounds. The kitchen and pantry are the perfect place to cook up a storm for the family and also enjoy views, character...and the all important Range cooker! Outside the home, the tasteful gates open into a generous golden gravel driveway playing host to a useful detached garage. The gardens and grounds to both sides are tasteful and functional with the area behind the garage being ideal for storage that then gives way to the most beautiful manicured lawned gardens boasting mature and well stocked beds, borders and patio areas, all enjoying a wonderful degree of privacy and making the most of the large corner plot. Completing the deal is the valuable addition of a detached summer house/office that could suit a range of uses.

We truly love this home and could talk about it all day long but to fully appreciate the discerning lifestyle on offer, watch our guided video tour, view our photos and floor plan then call us here at Chris Hamriding Estate Agents to book a viewing!

Local area - Mossley

A short stroll from the home and you'll arrive at the delightful village shopping area of 'Hightown', a lovely community offering a wide array of amenities to include; pubs, cafes, bakeries, a chemist, a post office, hairdressers, a great chippy and much much more!

Hightown also plays host to the most useful Congleton train station, an obvious plus point for commuters! the A34 is also a moments drive away giving efficient access to north and south.

Those of you looking for a family home will surely be pleased with the proximity to the highly regarded Mossley C of E Primary School which is a moments walk whilst two excellent high schools are within catchment. When all of the above gets too much....take a stroll in the miles of Cheshire countryside easily accessed within minutes of your doorstep via the towpaths of the Macclesfield Canal!

On the topic of relaxing, Congleton Golf Course is a few minutes walk from the property in question and Mossley also enjoys its own bowling green and cricket club, meaning you really can immerse yourself in English village life here!
