Nestled in the charming and historic Chapel Street of Congleton, this detached Grade 2 listed house is a true gem waiting to be discovered. Boasting a wealth of internal space including three reception rooms, five bedrooms, and three bathrooms, this property offers ample space for comfortable living.

The property exudes character and history, making it a unique opportunity to own a piece of Congleton's heritage. With hugely generous gardens at the rear and a two storey double garage to the side, the plot is most impressive.
