38 Castle Road, Mow Cop, ST7 3PH

Offers In The Region Of £650,000

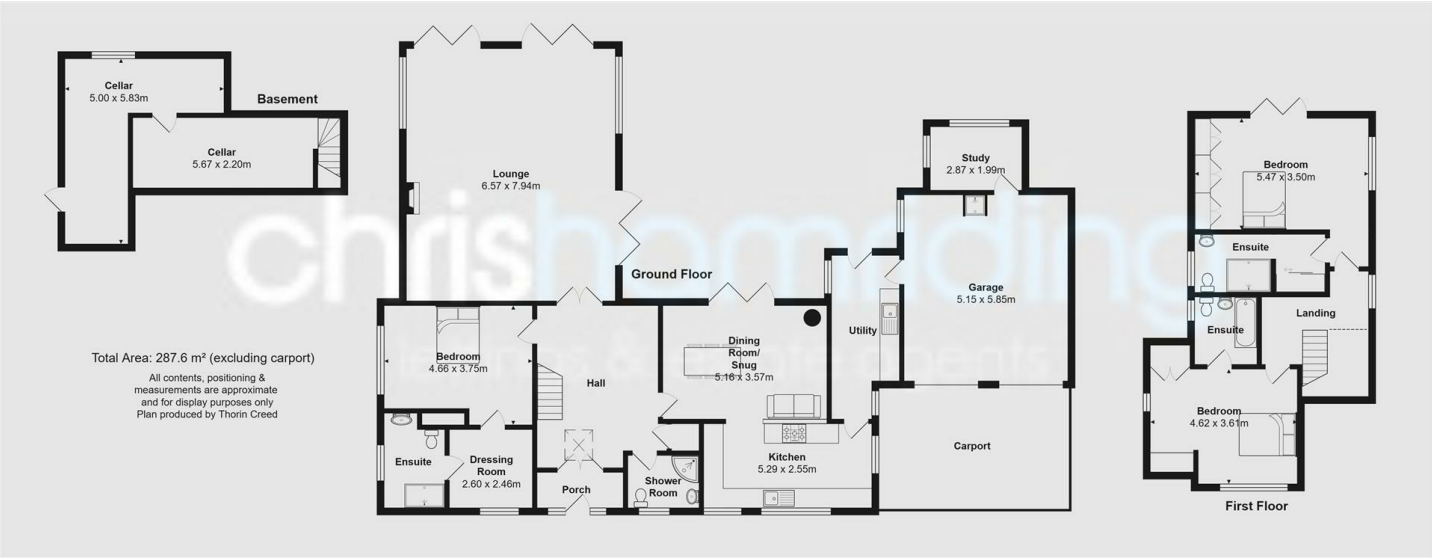

To fully appreciate this incredible, unique home take a few moments to watch our guided video tour and prepare to be amazed!

Sit proudly on a generous plot, this individually designed home has been hugely improved by the current owners and makes for an impressive lifestyle like no other. The location is a blissful blend of rural village life and is perfectly complemented by incredible panoramic views that the property really makes the most of. Laid out in a flexible manner, the internal accommodation is very well proportioned across both floors with the main lounge being an impressive focal point having full width windows and doors leading out to a balcony with perhaps the most amazing views in the county! The dining kitchen is sure to impress in both its size and specification whilst all FOUR bathrooms are luxurious and all three bedrooms (two upstairs and one downstairs) are of a double size thus furthering the potential for flexible living.

Outside the home lies a useful driveway leading to the quality double garage that enjoys a home office to the rear (again with incredible views!) whilst the gardens are ample in size offering an array of uses with hot tub areas, patio terraces, lawned, beds and borders galore! All of which enjoy the amazing reaching views! Last but not least is a handy basement which is very well proportioned offering handy additional space. Locally, the village of Mow Cop is a great community and you're surrounded by miles of countryside to enjoy all year round yet the bustling town of Congleton is just minutes away by car offering great amenities, schools and commuter links.
