Homes of this nature are a real rarity in today's busy marketplace and the property in question sits proudly within a well-established area of the town. Inside the home you are welcomed by a grand reception hall that gives access to plenty of well-proportioned and very well-presented accommodation. There are two formal sitting rooms, a breakfast kitchen, utility room, office/playroom and a beautiful conservatory overlooking the delightful rear gardens. Up on the first floor a spacious landing gives access to all of the double bedrooms, two of which have lovely en-suite facilities and there's also a very tasteful family bathroom. As well as the five double bedrooms there's the useful addition of a box room/dressing room. Throughout the home there are beautiful design touches inspired by the Arts & Crafts period and these touches are of course the perfect complement to the home's attractive kerb appeal! Outside, there's a fantastic 'in & out' driveway to house several vehicles and it leads to the spacious garage that has the added bonus of a workshop at the rear! To the rear of the home is a sight to behold, gorgeous patio areas and mature lawned gardens are just perfect for family life and can be enjoyed all day long, all year round! It's worthy of note that these gardens offer a great degree of privacy.
