

Highview, Southwell Road, Manadon, Plymouth, Devon, PL6 5BE

Guide Price £535,000

Highview, Southwell Road is a newly built, four bedroomed detached dwelling, located in a sheltered position within the desirable Great Berry Estate. This generously proportioned property enjoys a partially hidden spot behind a retaining wall on Manadon Hill and comes with off road parking for 4 vehicles, an integral garage (with electric roller shutter door, allowing internal entry to the hallway) and private gardens. Within easy reach of excellent local facilities this impressive property makes for an ideal family home.

This impressive residence has a spacious central hallway which leads, on the ground floor, to a large multipurpose L-shaped kitchen dining area with home office room, a large living room, downstairs WC and the integral garage. The kitchen space has bifold doors opening onto the garden amenity space. The kitchen worktops are quartz with under unit lighting. A utility room is accessed from the kitchen area and contains a door providing direct access to the outside space. On the first floor, there are 4 double bedrooms, 2 ensuites and a family bathroom. The master bedroom is accessed via a versatile anteroom which would work well as a dressing room, study area, snug or nursery.

Externally there are private and enclosed garden spaces, a garage and off-road parking accessed via a driveway. The house will be finished with white masonry and a navy composite front door. The house has been considerably designed to ensure far reaching and open views across the city whilst maintaining maximum privacy in a well-established setting.
