Summary

Reflections is aptly named, sitting on an especially quiet and tranquil stretch of the waterfront and tucked away from the hubbub of the nearby Sandbanks Peninsula.

Unusually for a waterfront property in this vicinity it has a strong horizontal emphasis to its linear design with built form extending to around 3,800 square feet. The accommodation is arranged over just two floors and it includes four bedrooms, three bathrooms, two receptions and a home office.

The best views are reserved for the principal bedroom suite and the 30' sitting room which open onto a private sun terrace adjoining the foreshore. This is a wonderful outdoor living space which faces approximately Southwest with far reaching views encompassing Brownsea Island and the Purbeck Hills beyond.

Poole Harbour is renowned for its beautiful sunsets and Reflections offers a perfect vantage point from which to enjoy the view. To the front of the property there is an enclosed courtyard with room for casual and guest parking as well as an integral garage. Nearby amenities include Lilliput Village and Salterns Marina.
