Summary

Lumiere is a stylish detached home in one of the area's most popular lifestyle locations.

Brownsea View Avenue is convenient for local schools as well as Lilliput Parade with its interesting array of shops and cafés.

The house benefits from a generous driveway with casual / visitors parking leading to an oversize integral garage. Inside, the accommodation includes three bedrooms and three bathrooms on the top floor and the daytime accommodation includes an especially stylish kitchen diner complete with an impressive array of integrated appliances, stone tops, a peninsula breakfast bar and space for informal dining coupled with fashionable banquette seating. This light and airy space connects to the outdoor terrace via bifold doors and the garden below benefits from a connecting gate to Blake Dene Common.

The formal sitting room embodies the relaxed and sophisticated theme of the decor throughout and its the perfect place to relax and unwind. The lower ground floor includes the integral garage and a laundry room. The occasional bedroom four is currently used as a home office but could be suitable for a number of uses.
