The Town

Known for many years as The Queen of the Borders, and situated at the confluence of the Rivers Slitrig and Teviot, Hawick is the largest of the Border towns. Frequent winners of national floral awards, and famous world-wide for its quality knitwear, Hawick is part of The Cashmere Trail and is the major centre for the industry in the Borders. There is a good range of shops, primary and secondary schooling. Hawick boasts the award winning Wilton Lodge Park which lies on the River Teviot, extending to some 107 acres, with many walks, recreational facilities, walled garden, Hawick Museum and Scott Gallery. The town is also famous for rugby, and has the benefit of a range of sporting and Leisure Centre facilities including many fine golf courses throughout the area. Many events are held in the town during the year, including the annual Common Riding.

The Property

The impressive frontage of this beautiful traditional property sets the scene for the wealth of period features that await when entering in through the solid timber door flanked by imposing pillars. The large entrance vestibule with original decorative tiled floor and stained glass windows is a welcoming space allowing access to the main living accommodation and family bathroom. The sitting room is in the heart of the home and is brimming with character while offering a cosy, comfortable area to relax. The large bay window with raised seating area makes an ideal reading nook or you can curl up in front of the lovely corner fireplace with log burning stove. A beautiful original timber banquette offers further seating and storage. From here open arches lead to the dining hall with ornate carved timber pillars and arches, intricate cornicing, stained glass windows, high ceilings and deep timber skirtings. This splendid room is ideal for entertaining with ample space for dining furniture. Access from here to three bedrooms, drawing room and to a rear hallway where the kitchen is located. The grand drawing room is to the front with double aspect large bay windows to the front and side allowing in lots of natural light and newly decorated in sage green with deep timber skirtings. The stunning white timber fire surround with cast iron horseshoe insert on a tiled hearth is the focal point of this elegant room. The original parquet flooring has also been lovingly restored and a stunning chandelier hangs from the high ceiling with striking detailed moulding and cornicing. The kitchen is located to the rear with double aspect, double glazed windows to the side and rear and has been updated for modern living with ample floor and wall units with timber effect splashback and work surfaces, which continue along to offer a lovely breakfast bar area looking out over the rear courtyard. Built in electric oven and microwave. Four burner induction hob and stainless steel cooker hood. Space and plumbing for a washing machine and dishwasher and free standing fridge freezer. One and a half bowl stainless steel sink and drainer. Space for tumble dryer. Within the back hallway which provides access to kitchen, are two large storage cupboards, open display area and door to the rear courtyard.

The master suite is to the rear with original fireplace nook boasting beautiful woodwork, stained glass windows and tiled fireplace. This expansive room offers the home owner plentiful space for relaxation and privacy. Tastefully decorated in neutral tones with carpet to floor and attractive ceiling and wall lights. A generous sash and case bay window fills the room with light and is framed by decorative wall panelling which is continued round the room. The contemporary ensuite wet room comprises of shower (run off boiler) with shower boarding, WC and wash hand basin. Chrome heated towel rail and good storage. Two opaque double glazed windows.

A second bedroom is located to the side with sash and case windows and decorated in lovely patterned wallpaper with carpet flooring. The period features are carried through into this room with high ceilings, intricate cornicing and ceiling rose with ceiling light. Deep timber skirtings. Recessed display area with glazed doors and moulded architraves.

The third bedroom is located to the side with large double glazed window. Decorated in white with a dark green feature wall and carpet to floor. This room is versatile in use with open display shelving and cupboard for storage.

Located to the front is the 4pc family bathroom, flooded with light from the long opaque windows to the front and side. This room is the perfect mix of contemporary and traditional with grey timber panelling to walls and the original decorative stain glass windows have been incorporated as a unique feature. Comprises of wash hand basin, WC, bath and double walk in shower enclosure with chrome shower run off the boiler.
