The accommodation comprises

Positioned in a prime location which is a very short walk to Burnhams gorgeous river front, offering some fabulous coastal walks.

Equally accessible are the shops, restaurants, yacht clubs and general amenities, including the train station which is linked to London Liverpool Street Station.

Oyster Close is two individually designed family homes approached via a private driveway, of which this property holds the title for.

This offers it's new owners a quiet private location within the conservation area and an extremely well presented four bedroom detached house with many quality additions made by the current vendors.

The ground floor offers a generous hallway, cloakroom/w/c, high specification fitted kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, spacious lounge, study and dining room.

The first floor offers four generous size bedrooms, two of which have en-suites and a family bathroom. Externally if you love your sun, a south facing garden, privately screened and beautifully set out to relax, enjoy and entertain (PLEASE SEE PHOTOGRAPHS). To the front the property has its own driveway for multiple vehicles, to a detached double garage with power, light and a boarded loft space.
