The accommodation comprises

Located in the semi rural village of Tillingham which offers two public houses/restaurants, a village shop, infant school and doctors surgery. The village is well known for its picturesque village green and church and also has a playing field which holds many events and sports.

They say looks can be deceiving and this semi detached character cottage scores a ten for exactly that reason.

We recommend paying particular attention to the photography and video tour, to fully appreciate what this delightful and extremely deceptive cottage has to offer.

The ground floor offers a cosy front sitting room, scullery, cloakroom/w/c and a very spacious lounge with open fireplace, leading to an even more impressive kitchen/breakfast room which is open plan to the summer room.

The first floor offers three excellent size bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally the cottage has a large secluded rear garden 59 ft x 46 ft and a separate courtyard 28 ft x 11 ft. In addition to this the property has the benefit of its own driveway that runs along the adjoining cottage with double gates and space for multiple vehicles leading to a garage that also has a gym area to the rear.
