Alpington is a small village situated some five miles south east of the Cathedral City of Norwich and closely associated with the neighbouring village of Yelverton with which it shares its facilities including a duck-pond, village hall, St Mary's Church and the Alpington & Bergh Apton C of E Primary School which currently holds an outstanding Ofsted Rating. Further amenities can be found in the larger village of Poringland, whilst a short drive takes you to the City Centre itself.

SETTING THE SCENE

To the right hand side of The Wheel of Fortune, a set of stairs lead to the uPVC double glazed entrance door. This private entrance offers far reaching views, and a position which is close to the car park for ease.

THE GRAND TOUR

Heading inside, the kitchen is set within the eaves, with a range of built-in storage and work surfaces. A sink is recessed with tiled splash backs. A range of storage and appliances can be found, with wood effect flooring under foot. Heading through, the carpeted sitting room offers a window to the rear, with a built-in cupboard, soft furnishings and media units. Crossing the original stairs you head to the double bedroom, which is carpeted and finished with a window to rear. The en suite bathroom completes the property with a white three piece suite, tiled splash backs and a shower over the bath. A window faces to rear, whilst a useful storage recess is tucked behind the door.
