

Bream Close, London, N17 £1,800 Per Calendar Month

Council Tax: B

Tenure:

Wake up to calming views of the river and Tottenham Marshes in this beautifully arranged two-bedroom apartment. The spacious living room is bathed in natural light and offers plenty of room for both relaxation and creativity — whether you're unwinding after a long day or setting up a quiet study corner to work from home. A separate kitchen and a sleek modern bathroom suite complete the thoughtful layout, along with two bedrooms — one generous double and a cozy single.

Step outside and you'll find yourself in South Tottenham, one of North London's most characterful and evolving neighbourhoods. The area is alive with energy — a blend of old London charm and modern vibrancy. Trendy bars, new eateries, and independent cafés are all within easy reach, each adding their own flavour to the community.
