

143 Broad Lane, London, N15

£1,800 Per Month

Council Tax: B

Tenure:

Minutes from the banks of River Lea and London's reservoirs, this modern refurbished one-bedroom flat provides convenience to nearby amenities, space for entertaining, and room to grow.

Rich hardwood flooring, sunlight and the perfect combination of modern touches with vintage charm flow throughout the well-designed floor plan. Dark cabinetry, butcher block counters, stainless appliances, and a stunning backsplash create the ultimate environment for your inner home chef to unleash their creativity as they fill the house with delicious scents of a tasty meal to come.

Dine in the adjoining open dining/reception area, then enjoy this home to the fullest potential from the expansive balcony that catches the evening light in an almost magical way.

- One bedroom first floor apartment
- Wetlands wild life trust
- Markfield Park
- Seven Sisters, Tottenham Hale (Victoria Line) and (British Rail)
- EPC Rating: C
- Open plan living space
- River Lea
- Stansted Express
- Council Tax: B
- Available 22nd December 2025

