

The Broadway,
Laleham
TW18

A beautiful Grade II listed detached family home built in the mid-19th century in the village of Laleham. The house has been sympathetically extended, to give a large family home with the layout having flexibility in use.

The grand library, which is the main reception room is the heart to this spectacular period family home. There are five/seven bedrooms, five bathrooms, four/six reception rooms, a large eat in kitchen/breakfast room, which overlooks the courtyard, garden and heated swimming pool with an electrically operated cover.

There is ample off street parking to the front, along with double and single garages.

Situated in the pretty Thameside village of Laleham with its friendly community and within a few minutes stroll of this picturesque stretch of the River Thames, local shops and reputable public houses.

The town centre of Staines with its comprehensive shopping, entertainment and leisure facilities is within approximately 1.7 miles, as is the mainline rail station that provides a fast and frequent service to London Waterloo.

The charming village of Shepperton with its world famous film studio and an excellent range of independent shops and restaurants is also located within approximately two and a half miles.
