

Holly House

Situated on an a country lane with the garden in full sun and neighbouring open fields beyond, the location of Holly House certainly felt quite idyllic on the peaceful summers day of our visit. Thankfully, the inside also feels just as special - full of character yet modern and as if no real expense has been spared during the recent refurbishment.

The ground floor has been fitted with underfloor heating throughout and has a beautiful and comprehensively equipped breakfast kitchen with a generous central island, solid work surfaces and integral appliances. The kitchen extends into the dining area which features French doors to the garden and a wood-burning stove, complimenting the one in the lounge. The ground floor also includes a generous utility/boot room, cloakroom and bedroom, with the remaining bedrooms and lovely family bathroom occupying the first floor.

Outside the property has undergone a similar transformation with the exterior having been freshly painted and the recently constructed brick-and-oak porch adding a welcome and traditional Lincolnshire design cue. The house is actually set quite back from the lane, nestled behind a timber farmhouse style gate, so there is generous parking and easy turning space, ideal for a caravan or families with several vehicles. As can be seen from the photos, the garden is a particular highlight and will inevitably be of particular interest to buyers with pets or younger family members to consider - it also enjoys considerable privacy, and is not overlooked to the rear.
