In our opinion, the Frampton Gate development is one of the nicest developments that we have seen from developers on the scale of Allison Homes. Situated less than a ten-minute drive from the historic market town of Boston off Middlegate Road in the much sought-after village of Frampton, this most attractive development of beautifully designed family homes has an attractive tree-lined frontage is situated within walking distance of the neighbouring village of Kirton which enjoys both primary and secondary schools in addition to many amenities to suit all age groups.

These brand new individually designed homes provide a fabulous range of 2,3,4 and 5 bedroom properties to suit modern and traditional lifestyles, with a winning combination of open-plan living, generous light-filled reception rooms and cosy study areas. We are really impressed by the plans for several green areas and attractive landscaping that give a more established ‘village feel’ as well as wider roads and some really generous gardens too.
