

40 Witham Bank West, Boston, PE21 8PT

Offers Over £425,000

For me, one of the loveliest things about our little historic market town is the fact that it is still possible to find beautiful properties in areas that few people really know about, and I have often thought that some of the wonderful period properties that line the River Witham are little gems hidden away, yet still right in the town.

This area enjoys an attractive waterfront position, a pleasant tree-lined stroll from the Marina, close to Central Park, the cobbled streets of Wormgate and then into the Market Place itself. Indeed, if you walk away from the town along the bank it is not long at all before the town is left behind you and you can enjoy either an attractive riverside or woodland walk. Often with incredibly long driveways, you could be forgiven for never realising that this row of period properties are there, and that really is the secret to the charm of this lovely Georgian house.

With a double garage and parking at one end, a long private footpath leads up to the back of the property through an attractive garden of flowering plants, shrubs and a small orchard of various fruit trees. Arranged over three stories, the property offers incredibly versatile accommodation including six or even seven bedrooms over three floors.

The whole of the ground floor could serve equally well as a two bedroom self-contained unit, complete with its own kitchen and wet room, whilst to the first floor is a well-appointed lounge and dining room, a comfortable sitting room/snug with an open fire, breakfast kitchen and a cloakroom. The main front entrance door leads out onto Witham Bank West and a staircase then leads up to the second floor where there are four double bedrooms and a lovely bathroom with a high level WC and a free standing bath, as well as a double shower cubicle.

Buyers can be assured that for such a substantial property, the current owner has invested considerably, with updates including new windows and exterior doors, updating of both kitchens, carpets as needed plus a new patio, recently painted exterior and landscaping. To summarise, this versatile property is an absolutely charming combination of contemporary elements, period features and an ever-changing view of the riverside through the seasons.
