WHAT'S GREAT?

Without a doubt an immaculately presented and imposing detached family home situated in a prime village location which is ideal for commuters given the easy access to the A43 and A14.

The position of this home makes it more attractive as it occupies a lovely plot with ample parking and well manicured garden to the front which is set back from the main road.

In brief the accommodation comprises of an entrance hall with cloakroom, dining room/study/snug, a large front to back lounge with feature fireplace, kitchen/breakfast room with doors leading out to the rear garden and finally a utility room completes this floor.

To the first floor the bedrooms are a lovely size, all bright and airy, three of which benefit from fitted wardrobes and two also have ensuite shower rooms, a stunning refitted family bathroom completes this floor with a gorgeous deep soak free standing bath.

As mentioned the space outside is a real plus point of this home, especially the rear garden, immensely secluded, well maintained and planted with numerous trees, shrubs and flowers creating a lovely space for all to enjoy. Expect to find the garden fully enclosed with a large patio area for al fresco dining. To the front the parking is ideal for numerous vehicles with a double garage and driveway.
