Offered to the market with No Onward Chain, this detached bungalow overlooks a delightful village green in a highly regarded cul-de-sac within the well-served village of Ashill, which offers a range of local amenities.

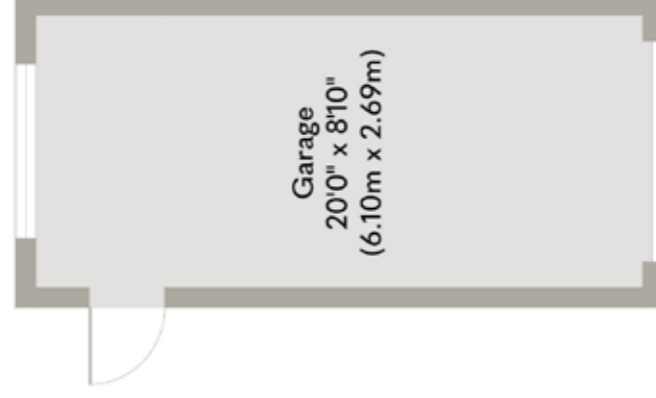

This deceptively spacious bungalow features three well-presented bedrooms, a charming living room with an open fireplace, a fitted kitchen, a bathroom, and a utility room. The property presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a blank canvas and could be modernised and/or extended to suit individual preferences (STPP).

Outside, the property benefits from front and enclosed rear gardens, ample driveway parking, and a garage.

Ashill

A MID-NORFOLK VILLAGE TO CALL HOME

Nestled between the market towns of Swaffham and Watton for convenience, Ashill is the epitome of mid-Norfolk living.

The village is quaint, the road through meanders alongside cottages, a community centre and village pub.

The parish church of St Nicholas peers over the wall. Dating back to the 14th century, the church stands close to a group of houses that form the oldest part of the village.

The thriving, historic market town of Swaffham offers an extensive range of local amenities including a Waitrose, Tesco, Asda, further shops, pubs and restaurants, three doctors surgeries and primary, secondary and higher schools together with a variety of leisure and sports activities, including an excellent Golf Club. The town has an extremely popular Saturday market and many interesting historic buildings including the parish church and 'The Buttercross'.

In each direction a different taste of Fen-land lifestyle calls to be enjoyed. To the west, Hanseatic King's Lynn sits on the River Great Ouse with direct rail link to London and Cambridge.

Royal Sandringham Estate sits just outside the port town and beyond, the shores of the sought-after north Norfolk curve around the coast. Around 25 miles east, the cathedral city of Norwich offers an abundance of stores.

Leaving field views behind, Thetford forest lies south on the border to Suffolk.
