Cedar Grange presents a rare opportunity to secure a substantial detached family home set within an established plot of around 1.5 acres (STMS), available chain free. Positioned to take full advantage of its setting, the house combines generous internal space with extensive garaging and far-reaching field views.

The property offers a highly adaptable layout with five versatile reception rooms, creating flexibility for family life, entertaining, or home working. An open plan kitchen and dining area forms the natural hub of the home, opening directly to the garden and allowing a seamless connection to the outdoors. Alongside this, a series of reception spaces - including a dedicated cinema room, garden room, and playroom - deliver varied options to suit changing needs and lifestyles.

The principal suite spans the rear of the house, enjoying open countryside views from a private balcony. A walk-in dressing area and en suite bathroom complete the arrangement, creating a comfortable retreat. Four further bedrooms, supported by family bathroom facilities, provide ample accommodation.

Outside, the grounds deliver both space and privacy. The range of garaging is unusually extensive and offers clear potential for conversion (STPP), whether for ancillary accommodation, a home office, or leisure uses. The plot balances formal garden areas with open lawns, framed by surrounding fields, ensuring a sense of privacy while retaining easy access to Hingham's amenities and school.

Cedar Grange is well-suited to buyers seeking a property with scale, versatility, and the scope to shape further around their needs, all within a well-connected Norfolk setting.

Hingham

DISCOVER THIS 18TH CENTURY
“LITTLE LONDON”

With grand Georgian architecture surrounding its market place and town green, Hingham is in the heart of rural Norfolk.

For this market town, it was in the 18th century when the socialites of high society built and took residence in Hingham that it became fashionably known as “little London”.

The many and varied local shops have the special character of a small market town but are up-to-date in what they provide. Despite the influence and attractions of neighbouring Norwich, an active and independent town life continues to thrive and grow. Amenities include a family butcher, The White Hart Hotel which is a community Boutique Hotel and Country Dining Pub, cafe’s, library, primary school, excellent health centre, doctors surgery, dentist and frequent bus services providing access to the surrounding villages and towns of Wymondham, Attleborough, Watton, Dereham and Norwich. The town is located 17 miles from the cathedral city of Norwich, which has many restaurants, shops, supermarkets and services including an international airport.

Attleborough is a market town situated within the Breckland district, located between Norwich and Thetford. The town has a range of amenities including four schools, a town hall, shops, coffee shops, bars, restaurants, takeaway restaurants and a doctors. If you are looking for attractions nearby you will find Banham Zoo, Melsop Farm Park, Hulabaloos and Combat Paintball and every Thursday you will find the local market, which was established in the town as far back as 1226.
