Property Introduction

Situated on the outskirts of Camborne, this semi-detached house is ideal as a first home.

Benefiting from two double size bedrooms on the first floor, there is a lounge, fitted kitchen and a second lounge suitable as a dining room if desired.

One will find a shower room on the first floor and to the side of the property there is a sun lounge which overlooks an enclosed courtyard style garden.

With the exception of one window there is uPVC double glazing and heating is provided by a gas fire in the lounge and an electric fire in the second lounge.

Deceptively spacious, viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

The property is within a short drive of Tesco Superstore on the fringe of the town and Camborne town centre is less than half a mile away. Camborne, which is steeped in mining history, offers all the facilities you would expect for modern living, there is a mix of national and local shopping outlets, banks, a Post Office together with easy access to the A30 trunk Road. The railway station is nearby and here there is direct links to London Paddington and the north of England.

Truro, the administrative and cultural heart of Cornwall, is within fifteen miles and the university town of Falmouth on the south coast is within a similar distance. Portreath on the north coast which is noted for its sandy beach and harbour is within four miles.
