Property Introduction

Believed to have been built in the early 1970's, this unusual property faces south and has lovely sea and harbour views. The accommodation briefly comprises of four bedrooms, the principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room, the third bedroom has an en-suite cloakroom and the fourth bedroom situated on a lower level also has an en-suite shower room. There is an 31' open-plan living room enjoying sea views, kitchen with breakfast bar, utility room, a walk-in pantry and a good-sized sunroom with underfloor heating enjoying the sea views.

The mature sheltered garden is mainly laid to lawn with flower borders which are well stocked with shrubs, plants and bulbs. There are a number of mature trees, including mimosa, cherry, crab apple and copper maple. A slate path leads to a flight of steps onto a raised paved patio, with inset flower beds, running the length of the bungalow which has the sun most of the day and affords attractive sea and harbour views.

Outside is a boiler room, log store and an attached greenhouse, together with a detached double garage with automatic door. There are well-stocked mature gardens to three sides.

Offered for sale with no onward chain, the property is located in a fabulous location.

Location

Coverack is a picturesque fishing village on the south-east coast of the Lizard Peninsula. Once a notorious smugglers haunt, the village is now known for its peace and tranquility where fishing is carried on as a way of life from the ancient harbour. The village has a number of shops, a gallery, cafés and restaurants, catering for the visitors who appreciate the wonderful setting and the safe and sandy beach.

Nearby is the larger village of St Keverne, and the historic market town of Helston is some eleven miles away. From the village are superb country and coastal walks taking in the stunning scenery.
