Property Introduction

A deceptively spacious property offering family size accommodation with the added benefit of an enclosed large garden to the rear. The rear garden will allow for the cottage to be extended and there is the potential to create separate living accommodation with its own access at the bottom of the garden, subject to the usual consents. On entering the cottage, a hallway gives access to an inviting lounge with a granite lintel fire surround and a beamed ceiling. A central kitchen which benefits from fitted units and from here is a utility porch with access to the rear garden. A separate dining room with a large picture window and a traditional wood burner enjoys an outlook over the garden. On the first floor there are three bedrooms and a bespoke bathroom.

The cottage is fully double glazed and heating is provided by an oil fired Worcester boiler. The front garden sets the property away from the pavement and is laid out to be easy to maintain, as mentioned previously the rear garden is a major asset which would allow for the cottage to be extended, if required. Parking is also available off-road to the rear.

Location

Portreath is a popular coastal village noted for its sandy beach and active harbour. Popular with surfers and bathers alike the North Coast Footpath with its stunning walks passes through the village and it is still possible to purchase crabs and lobsters from the local fisherman at the right time of the year. The village has local shops, a bakery and a choice of Public Houses all of which offer dining facilities. Schooling is available for younger children within the village whilst senior education is available nearby at Redruth. Greenfield Terrace is set within a quiet cul-de-sac benefiting from a village green and less than five minutes walk from the beach.

Ideally placed for access to the major transport routes, the A30 trunk road can be found within five miles and Redruth, which is the nearest major town, has a mainline Railway Station with direct links to London Paddington and the north of England. Truro, the administrative and shopping centre for Cornwall is nearby and the university town of Falmouth on the south coast is within a commuting distance. Newquay airport is circa thirty minutes away and here one will find direct flights to London and main UK cities together with European destinations.

OUTSIDE FRONT

The front rose garden sets the property back from the pavement with a dwarf stone wall and there is a largely maintenance free gravelled area with bark covered borders and shrubs.

REAR GARDEN

The rear garden is, as previously stated, of a generous size, largely lawned, there is an extensive decked patio immediately to the rear of the property. Block single garage and additional parking for two cars (with development potential). External Worcester oil fired combination boiler. Outside water supply.

AGENT'S NOTE

Please note, the Council Tax Band for the property is band 'C'. Our vendor has taken advice from an architect and planning consultant and has been informed that there is a high level of confidence that an application for an annexe at the rear of the garden for a dependent relative would be successful.

SERVICES

Mains water which is from a metered supply, mains electricity and mains drainage.
