Property Introduction

This spacious light and bright maisonette is located within a grand period property with a beautiful outlook over Kimberley Park in this favoured address within the town.

The property comprises entrance hallway with stairs up to first floor with a generous lounge and a kitchen both overlooking the park, one generous double bedroom, bathroom and a large attic room with full staircase.

There are updated double glazed sash windows and a front garden for the owner's private use.

Location

Located at the rear of Kimberley Park, this grand period property provides a stunning outlook and the opportunity to enjoy all that the park has to offer. There are lovely places to sit and enjoy the natural surroundings and the organised events held within the park and it is a short walk to the town where there is a range of cafes, restaurants and bars, a multi-screen cinema and national and independent stores.

It is just over half a mile distant to Gyllyngvase, just one of the four beautiful beaches available in the town. There is a regular train service from three stations in Falmouth that go to Truro and beyond and in the centre of the town is the bus station providing routes to the surrounding towns and villages.
