Property Introduction

This delightful two bedroom semi-detached Grade II listed cottage oozes charm and character. Believed to date back to the 1700's, the current owners have lovingly updated the property whilst retaining the lovely features. There is an entrance porch and kitchen leading into a dining room with log burner and a snug lounge with a real fireplace. On the first floor are two double bedrooms (one with a mezzanine) and a bathroom. There are exposed beams, granite lintels, slate sills and window archways, to name a few of the character features.

The cottage garden is utterly charming with a pond, greenhouse, workshop, garden room/office with internet connection and mini-wood burner and even a patio with an outside pizza oven! The property backs onto fields and looks out across to the church. There is a parking space in front of the gates.

Location

The village of Stithians is located within a reasonable travelling distance to the maritime town of Falmouth as well as the city of Truro with its mainline Railway Station operating to London Paddington, it is also virtually equidistant for Redruth and Helston.

Within the village is a vibrant community with local facilities such as Primary School, Public House, doctor's surgery, shop which caters very well for day-to-day needs along with a cricket club and village hall. There is a regular bus service as well as a school buses operating to secondary schools within the catchment area of Stithians. Being a rural village, there are a number of countryside walks on the doorstep along with Stithians Reservoir being within a short distance, popular for watersports, walking and fishing.
