Camborne
£385,000 Freehold
Property Introduction

Situated on the ever popular Barripper Road on the outskirts of Camborne, this detached bungalow offers generous family size accommodation and has been the subject of recent updating by the present owners. In addition to the separate lounge and dining room, there is a breakfast room leading off from the kitchen which benefits from French doors opening onto the rear garden. The principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room and WC, there is a second double size bedroom on the ground floor and turning stairs lead up to a further bedroom with en-suite WC on the first floor which is ideal for a teenager. The bathroom on the ground floor has recently been updated and has a modern contemporary feel, the property is fully double glazed and there is a mains gas central heating system with a new boiler having been installed in 2022. To the outside the bungalow sits on a virtually level plot with ample off-road parking available to the front and side. The rear garden is secure for younger children and pets and is mainly lawned with an extensive sun deck/patio and a base for a hot tub. A major feature is the garage workshop which is 23' 6" in length and 11'3" wide with a generous height and having additional storage underneath a pitched roof. Viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection of this generously proportioned property.

Location

Situated within three quarters of a mile of the town centre, schooling for older children is available within walking distance. Camborne has a range of local and national shopping outlets, there is a Post Office, choice of banks and a mainline Railway Station which connects with London Paddington and the north of England.

The A30 is situated to the north of the town and this gives direct access out of the county. The north coast beaches of Portreath and Gwithian are within five miles and Truro, the county town is within fourteen miles. Falmouth, Cornwall's university town on the south coast is within sixteen miles.
