Property Introduction

Situated within the village of Praze An Beeble, this double fronted cottage offers versatile accommodation and is being offered for sale with no onward chain. Ideal for the first time buyer, there are two good size double bedrooms on the first floor with an integrated landing area big enough for a large desk/office zone. On the ground floor there is a full width lounge/dining room featuring polished wood floorboards focusing on a granite lintel fire surround. Leading off from the lounge/diner there is a generous fitted kitchen and a recently remodelled shower room. Heating is provided by a gas fired combination boiler supplying radiators and double glazing has been installed with the exception of a small window in the shower room. To the rear of the cottage one will find a fully enclosed garden with patio and lawn together with a useful outbuilding which is ideal as a workshop or could well be converted into a home office. Planning permission has been gained to construct a first floor extension over the ground floor kitchen and shower room to create a principal bathroom with an en-suite and a terrace, full details will be found on the Cornwall Council Planning Portal ref: PA23/00686.
