Location

Mullion is the largest village on the Lizard Peninsula, which itself plays host to mainland Britain's most Southerly Point. The area is one of outstanding natural beauty with much of it being in the ownership of the National Trust. From sheltered valleys to moor land, the district boasts some superb countryside which is enclosed in a beautiful frame that is the rugged coastline of the Lizard Peninsula. Peppered with quaint fishing coves, beautiful beaches and majestic beauty and renowned sailing waters of the Helford River.

Mullion itself is a thriving village offering facilities to cater for everyday needs together with primary and comprehensive schools, 18-hole links golf course, Catholic and Anglican and Methodist churches, a health centre, a pharmacy, a picturesque harbour, the sandy coves of Polurrian and Poldhu and Polurrian Hotel with its Leisure club with an indoor swimming pool.

The market town of Helston, which stands as the gateway to the Lizard Peninsula, has more comprehensive amenities and is a short drive away whilst the county's commercial centre at Truro is some 18 miles from Helston and has a mainline Railway Station with links to London Paddington.
