Property Introduction

Offered for sale chain free, this garage link-detached bungalow occupies a generous corner plot within this popular residential location.

Having recently been updated by our vendors, the roof has been re-covered, there is a new combination gas boiler located within the loft and several of the windows have been replaced with uPVC double glazed units.

Internally there are two double size bedrooms, a lounge, fitted kitchen and the bathroom has been remodelled. Largely double glazed, heating is provided by a gas boiler supplying radiators.

To the outside gardens lie to the front, rear and side and feature extensive patios to the rear. Driveway parking to the front is available and there is access to the attached garage. A property that will surely attract a good level of interest, viewing our interactive virtual tour is strongly recommended prior to arranging a closer inspection.

Location

Glendale Crescent is situated within half a mile of the town centre on the Falmouth side of Redruth. Redruth offers a range of both national and local retail outlets, there is schooling for all ages and a mainline Railway Station with connections to London Paddington and the north of England. Redruth is also home to Kresen Kernow which has the largest collection of archive and library material relating to historic Cornwall.

The A30 trunk road runs to the north of the town and gives access to a direct route out of the county. The north coast at Portreath is within five and a half miles, Truro, the administrative and cultural centre of Cornwall is within ten miles and the south coast university town of Falmouth is within nine miles.
