Property Introduction

An attractive end-terraced character property located on this popular road in Redruth, within a reasonable distance to the shops and amenities of the town. The property boasts many characteristic features you would expect from this period, with the benefit of a gas fired central heating system along with uPVC double glazed windows.

Internally, an entrance porch accesses the generous lounge/diner with a wood burner, leading to the kitchen and sun room. To the first floor are two bedrooms and a bathroom.

The cottage is approached via a galvanised gateway with matching railings into the enclosed front garden that has a Cherry tree and a further range of shrubs. To the rear, there is a tiered garden which gives access to a useful storage unit.

Location

Redruth town offers a good range of retail outlets, along with out of town supermarkets. A mainline railway station operates to London Paddington and the town is ideally situated for access to the main A30, making travelling to other areas of the country that much easier. Both north and south coasts with their contrasting coastlines, are within reasonable travelling distance.

The Cathedral city of Truro being the main centre in Cornwall for business and commerce, is within approximately twelve miles.
