Property Introduction

An opportunity to purchase this charming mid-terraced Grade II listed property located in an ideal position for access to the many shops and amenities of the city centre.

Offering many characteristic features you would expect from a property of this period, the accommodation benefits from a comprehensive gas fired central heating system with partial double glazed windows.

In brief, the accommodation comprises of an impressive entrance hallway with attractive staircase, dining room, lounge, sun room/rear porchway, WC, whilst to the first floor are three bedrooms, the principal having an en-suite WC and a family shower room.

Externally to the rear is a small enclosed courtyard with access to a useful storage unit.

Location

The city of Truro is the commercial centre for Cornwall and offers a good range of well known high street multiples along with many independent retail outlets. Its attractive cobbled streets meander through the city leading to a range of restaurants, bars, cinema, nightclubs and of course The Hall for Cornwall located on the piazza.

The city is steeped in history and features many wonderful Georgian terraced streets which are rivalled in the west only by Bath. There are also a number of fine municipal gardens such as Boscowen Park and Victoria Gardens which have in the past won many awards in the Britain in Bloom competition. For those who enjoy water sports, these can be found nearby at Loe Beach near Feock and the maritime of Falmouth is approximately twelve miles distant. A regular rail service operates to London Paddington or west to Falmouth or Penzance and again the property is ideally situated for this service.
