Daveys Close, Falmouth

£275,000
Freehold

Property Introduction

This two bedroom mid terraced house is set in a no-through cul de sac on a small, quiet development on the outskirts of Falmouth.

It has an entrance porch leading into lounge, there is a kitchen/diner and an enclosed, south facing, low maintenance rear garden.

To the first floor there are two bedrooms and a bathroom. From bedroom two there are lovely far reaching views across countryside out to Goonhilly.

There is parking in the cul de sac and a useful garage in a block.

Location

Located on a small development with a useful bus service and within walking distance of Swanpool Beach, Nature Reserve and Falmouth Golf Club we can see why this area proves to be popular. The property is ideally placed for the amenities at Boslowick that include a convenience store, barbers, cafe and fish and chip shop and is within easy access to Primary Schools.

Beyond Boslowick further towards the town is the Penmere Train Station that provides a service to Falmouth town and to Truro with its connection to London Paddington.
